Retreat Facilitators
Ron and Chery Boehm

Ron and Chery grew up on small, family farms about 13 miles apart. They were married in 1971, and after college Ron was called to serve as a youth pastor at the Ankenytown grace Brethren Church ('72-'74).

Upon graduation from Grace Theological Seminary, Ron assumed the pastorate of a church plant in the university town of Bowling Green, Ohio. In 1985 Ron & Chery moved to Macedonia to plant a new church "from scratch." Here they would lead in planting and establishing this church for 15 years and raise their kids.

In 2000 he began serving in the Midwest as the VisionOhio Senior Missionary, coaching church planters and networking established church leaders. Chery often works alongside Ron, is the Director of Leadership development for Women of Grace USA, is a mentor-coach and champions the concerns of women in ministry. They and Aquilia/Priscilla type working relationship which they have refined and improved over 39 years of ministry.

Ron and Chery have four adult children and seven grandchildren.

"I just can't imagine, as a northerner from Ohio, going to Arizona in early March and sitting in a closed conference room for hours and listening to lectures. Jesus did some teaching in the synagogue, but it seems to me that He usually taught while along the way, in the streets, at the feast, on the boat or among the festival crowds. That's what we will do in Phoenix in March 2012. Chery and I would like to encourage you and, if possible, your spouse in your service for Jesus. We are very keenly aware of your ability to add to our teaching, learn from the Spirit and strengthen each other. We want this retreat to be an experience that imparts lessons along the way. It will be fun and rejuvenating. Come, share, listen, pray, enjoy, and return to your ministry with a fresh spring in your step."

Ron Boehm

This year's retreat will include multiple outdoor experiences to encourage your soul and guide you to experience God along the way. Times of reflection and devotion will precede and/or follow an excursion to Phoenix's First Friday downtown museums, food vendors and shops; a Saturday trip to a nearby state park; and a Sunday outdoor worship at another park just minutes from the hotel. Arizona in March offers day-time temperatures in the 80's, lows in the 50s. This retreat will balance activity with reflection and recreation with refreshment as you catch some Son along the way.
