

Full-time Youth Minister needed

College Corner Brethren Church in Wabash, IN seeks a highly motivated individual who is passionate about reaching youth for Jesus. We are a loving church who wants to make an impact for Jesus in Wabash, Grant, and Miami county. The Youth Minister will work alongside the Lead Minister to see that the mission of College Corner is realized inside and outside our church. We are looking for an individual who can train and lead volunteers in the church to create a ministry where youth are trained to be life-long followers of Jesus. This individual should also feel comfortable going out of the building to various places where youth can be engaged. As well, this individual will possess abilities to communicate well, listen well, be a great team player, and desires to work in and contribute to a fun and loving environment.

The primary purpose of the Youth Minister is to develop and implement a ministry for 1st-12th grade that introduces youth to Christ, disciples them in spiritual growth and trains them to serve Christ with their life. Of equal importance is to assist and empower parents/guardians in raising their kids to be spiritually mature adults. In accomplishing this mission, the Youth Minister will work together with all other staff and leadership and will fully support all the ministries of CCBC.

PERSONAL

- A deep-seated relationship with Jesus Christ and a foundation to their faith that aligns with the views of our church.
- Passionate heart for youth and their families
- Gifts of leadership, teaching and administration
- Possess strong computer skills competency and ability and desire to learn and implement new technologies as needed.
- Self-motivated with strong personal time management skills and a commitment to excellence

PHILOSOPHY OF MINISTRY

- Be a leader who is both a team player and a team builder, working well with staff, students, parents, and adult volunteers.
- Assist in supporting the spiritual, emotional and personal development and spiritual maturity of youth by working with parents to understand and help them meet the needs of their children beyond youth ministry.
- Build relationships in the community(s) to build a bridge from students' everyday culture to the gospel.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Ministry Program Oversight

- Develop and provide diverse programming for youth. This includes the coordination of regular youth meetings, Bible studies, Children's worship, missions and outreach opportunities, camps, conferences, etc.
- Provide oversight, encouragement, and empowerment of youth and the adult volunteers in the ministry.
- Be involved with, as much as possible, the personal lives of the youth (directly and through adult volunteers).
- Create and maintain open communication with parents/guardians.
- Assure proper care of facilities used by student programs.
- Assist with preaching to allow you to connect with our whole congregation. (2-6 times per year).

2. Leadership Oversight

- Build and maintain a team of adult volunteers who will build relationships with youth and serve as the "frontline" of ministry. Work under an Ephesians 4 model leading out by: recruiting, training, and retaining.
- Determine curriculum for teaching students.
- Be able to counsel, advise, and provide resources to youth and parents.

3. Administrative Oversight

- Maintain an organized, balanced program throughout the year coordinated with other ministries and events at CCBC.
- Assure roles and responsibilities for all events are delegated and understood by adult volunteers and youth.
- Communicate with staff, parents, and youth in a clear and timely fashion.
- Determine and manage Youth Ministry budget, including as many plans for the year as possible.
- Establish and maintain a philosophy of youth ministry with clear goals and objectives.

ACCOUNTABILITY

- The Youth Minister, under the guidance of the Lead Minister, will meet monthly for prayer, support and accountability with goals and objectives.
- Take advantage of professional development opportunities
- Attend weekly staff meetings for prayer, communication, and planning.

Compensation

- Position is full time, with salary package determined based on education and years of experience in ministry. A nice church parsonage is available for housing and will be part of the salary package.

Please submit your resume with references to: solomondavid1313@gmail.com